Meu amor-

Happy Valentine's Day, my sweet love,

You are my warmth in the cold, my joy in every moment, and my forever adventure. Just like penguins find their perfect match and stay together always, you are my one and only, my sweetest love, my safe place.

Every day with you is the best day, not because of where we go or what we do, but because I get to spend it with you—hand in hand, side by side, heart to heart. Whether we're out exploring, watching planes fly across the sky, or simply wrapped up in each other's arms, every moment is perfect because it's ours.

You are my home, meu amor. The place I belong, the warmth that fills my heart, the peace that settles my soul. No matter where life takes us, as long as I have you, I have everything. You are my heaven, meu pookie, the love that makes life shine brighter, the laughter that turns even the simplest moments into magic.

Te adoro, my sweet, kind, compassionate novio! Mi vida!

Besitos from your Chlo

To My Pookie, My Penguin

In your eyes, I find my home,
Where every heartbeat whispers, "I'm not alone."
Through every laugh, through every kiss,
I've found my peace, my perfect bliss.

Hand in hand, we walk through time,
With every step, our hearts align.
No matter where we go, what we do,
The best part is simply being with you.

At Fairchild, we wander through the trees,
Watching morphos dance on the breeze.
Their wings as vibrant as your smile,
Every moment with you is so worthwhile.

Or curled up close, just you and me,
Cuddling juntos, so carefree.

The world fades away when I'm with you,
And every moment feels fresh, brand new.

You're my warmth in winter's chill,
My calm when life gets loud and still.
Like penguins who waddle, side by side,
You are my forever, my love, my guide.

In your arms, I find my heaven,
A love so deep, it's like a blessing.
Pookie, you're my world, my skies,
With you, I see through love's true eyes.

No matter where life takes us next,
With you, my love, I feel so blessed.
Together, my love, we'll always stand,
Forever and always, hand in hand.

Happy Valentine's, my golden light,

With you, every day feels just right.
Through every sunrise, through every night,

You are my forever, my guiding light.

In your love, I find my way,
Through every challenge, come what may.

With you, my world feels whole and true,
Every dream I have, I share with you.

From quiet mornings to late-night talks,

From gentle cuddles to long walks,

You're the melody in every song,

The place where I feel I belong.

Together, we've built a life so sweet,

In every heartbeat, our souls meet.

Through all of life's twists and turns,

With you, my love, my heart forever burns.

Through every step, through every stride,

You are my forever, right by my side.
